

What is the risk of HIV passing from HIV-positive mothers to their babies when NO preventive actions are taken?

Most babies become infected with HIV during pregnancy and birth

Other babies are infected with HIV through breastfeeding

The majority of babies are not infected with HIV, but should be protected